1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 was filed in this application after a decision by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, but before the filing of a Notice of Appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or the commencement of a civil action. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the appeal has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114 and prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/2/11 has been entered.

Applicant should take notice that none of the foreign patent art or NPL art cited in the IDS of 3/7/11 has been considered. No copies of any of the foreign documents or NPL documents such as copies of office actions and misc articles have been provided for the examiner to review. Only US patent or US patent publication documents cited have been considered by the examiner because no copies were provided for any of the other documents cited.

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 18,44,45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

For claims 18,44,45, applicant is reciting a computer readable medium encoded with a data structure. The broadest reasonable interpretation for a computer readable medium includes transitory embodiments such as signals. This appears to be what these claims are directed to by using language that is reciting that the medium is “encoded” with a data structure. The claim scope is such that it includes signals for the computer readable medium, which is not eligible for patenting under 101.

Applicant should take notice that with respect to claim 1, the examiner has viewed the language of “embodied on a computer readable medium” to not be including signals. Claim 1 is considered by the examiner to be directed to tangible or non-transitory embodiments. This issue was something that was most recently addressed in a memo from USPTO Director David Kappos on 1/26/10. This recently received guidance is not something that occurred prior to the appeal for this instant application.

4. Claims 1,2,4-13,19 are allowed.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dennis Ruhl whose telephone number is 571-272-6808. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner’s supervisor, Janice Mooneyham can be reached on 571-272-6805. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
